

Mill fuels of the forest industries in Finland, 1992–2008

- In 2008, the Finnish forest industries used altogether 239,000 terajoules of mill fuels of which 75% consisted of wood-based fuels.
- Mill fuels are used both for the generation of electricity and heat as well as directly in industrial processes.
- The proportion of the forest industries of total consumption of electricity is 28%.
- Source: Finnish Statistical Yearbook of Forestry 2009, Finnish Forest Research Institute.